This publication includes deadline dates for the month of November 2017 and late announcements for the months of October 2017 and September 2017. Proposals submitted by a referenced target date will be included in a particular review cycle, while those received after the target date will be held for the next review cycle. It is advisable to contact the program staff cited in each listing to obtain all available information.

Those deadlines marked by an asterisk () are tentative. In some cases, these are specific dates that may change depending on the timing of the deadline notices and in others, we have listed just the month during which a deadline is expected. Deadlines marked by a double plus sign (++) are target dates.

Program:  Basic Cancer Research in Cancer Health Disparities
Agency:  National Institutes of Health
Next Deadline:  Nov 17, 2017
This program encourages grant applications from investigators interested in conducting basic, mechanistic research into the biological/genetic causes of cancer health disparities. These research project grants will support innovative studies designed to investigate biological/genetic bases of cancer disparities, such as mechanistic studies of biological factors, including cancer prevention intervention strategies, and the development and testing of new methodologies. Annual deadlines: 6/17, 11/17. Program expires 11/18/17. See http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PAR-15-093.html for details. Email: woodhousee@mail.nih.gov

Program: Integrated Earth Systems
Agency: National Science Foundation
Next Deadline: Nov 14, 2017
Supports collaborative, multidisciplinary study of Earth systems from the core of the Earth to the top of the critical zone with a specific focus on subsystems. IES will provide opportunities to focus on Earth systems connected to topics that include the continents; the terrestrial, surficial Earth systems including physical, chemical and biotic dimensions; linkages among tectonics, climate, landscape change, topography and geochemical cycles including core and mantle processes. Annual deadline: 11/14. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=504833 for details. Email: lejohnso@nsf.gov

Agency: National Science Foundation
Next Deadline: Nov 01, 2017
Supports development and construction of state-of-the-art astronomical detectors and instruments for the visible, infrared, submillimeter, and radio regions of the spectrum. Funds support the application of new hardware and software technology and/or innovative techniques in astronomical research in several fields, including imaging instruments and spectrometers, semiconducting and superconducting detector arrays for astronomy, precision radial velocity hardware, polarization measurement hardware and techniques, correlator hardware, interferometric imaging, and adaptive optics. Agency: National Science Foundation
Next Deadline: Nov 15, 2017
Provides individual investigator and collaborative research grants for observational, theoretical, laboratory, and archival data studies in all areas of astronomy and astrophysics, including stellar astronomy and astrophysics; the astronomy and astrophysics of our Galaxy; extragalactic astronomy and astrophysics; and cosmology. Proposals may span multiple disciplines and use multiple techniques. Contact program officer before submitting a proposal, particularly if the project will include investigators at multiple institutions. Annual deadline: proposal window 9/15-11/15. Program: Mathematical Biology
Agency: National Science Foundation
Next Deadline: Nov 15, 2017
Supports research in areas of applied and computational mathematics with relevance to the biological sciences. Projects should be mathematically innovative and address challenging problems of interest to members of the biological community. May include development of mathematical concepts and tools traditionally seen in other disciplinary programs within the Division of Mathematical Sciences, e.g., topology, probability, statistics, and computational mathematics. Annual deadline: proposal window is 11/1-11/15. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=5690 for details. Email: jwang@nsf.gov

Next Deadline: Nov 15, 2017
Supports mathematics research motivated by or having an effect on problems arising in science and engineering. Mathematical merit and novelty, as well as breadth and quality of impact on applications, are important factors. Proposals to develop critical mathematical techniques from individual investigators and interdisciplinary teams are encouraged. Annual deadline: proposal window is 11/1-11/15. Agency: National Science Foundation
Next Deadline: Nov 07, 2017
Supports research on the theory and applications of probability. Subfields include discrete probability, stochastic processes, limit theory, interacting particle systems, stochastic differential and partial differential equations, and Markov processes. Probability research that involves applications to other areas of science and engineering is especially encouraged. Annual deadline: proposal window is 10/23-11/7. Program: Statistics
Agency: National Science Foundation
Next Deadline: Nov 07, 2017
Supports research in statistical theory and methods, including research in statistical methods for applications to any domain of science and engineering. The theory forms the base for statistical science. The methods are used for stochastic modeling, and the collection, analysis, and interpretation of data. The methods characterize uncertainty in the data and facilitate advancement in science and engineering. Annual deadline: proposal window is 10/23-11/7. Program: Joint DMS/NIGMS Initiative to Support Research in Biological/Math Sciences
Agency: National Science Foundation
Next Deadline: Sep 18, 2017
This joint NSF/NIH initiative supports new and existing collaborations for mathematical and statistical research on questions in the biological and biomedical sciences. The goal is to create new opportunities in quantitative biological research, encourage new collaborations, as well as to support existing ones. Following review, proposals may be recommended for funding by either the NIH National Institute of General Medical Sciences or the NSF Division of Mathematical Sciences. Annual Deadline: 9/1-9/18. Agency: W. M. Keck Foundation
Next Deadline: Nov 01, 2017
Supports the development of new high risk/high impact/transformative research. Grants have been awarded for the development of promising new technologies, and to facilitate the development of advanced instruments where such instruments would further research ideas. Funds support medical research, and science and engineering research. Awards are up to $5 million, and typically fall between $500,000 and $2 million. Limited submission: one application per institution each cycle. This is a two-part application process. Phase I application annual deadlines: 5/1 (contact program officer between 1/1 and 2/15 for support) and 11/1 (contact program officer between 7/1 and 8/15 for support).
